

AGRICULTURAL LAND PRESERVATION PROGRAM
STATEMENT OF REVENUES,
EXPENDITURES AND FUND BALANCE
FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2003

December 2003

Lewis R. Riley, Secretary
Maryland Department of Agriculture

Pursuant to Section 212 of the Howard County Charter and in response to your Department's request, we have completed a review of the cash receipts and disbursements of the

HOWARD COUNTY, MARYLAND

for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003. Our report included a review of legislation relating to Agricultural Tax Revenues to determine the County's compliance thereto. It is our opinion that the Howard County Agricultural Land Preservation Program is operated in accordance with all applicable State and Local guidelines and that internal controls in place are adequate to ensure the proper recognition and collection of Maryland Agricultural Transfer Tax.

We wish to express our gratitude to the staffs of the Agricultural Land Preservation Program, the Departments of Finance and Planning & Zoning and the Maryland State Department of Assessments & Taxation for the cooperation and assistance extended to us during the course of this engagement.

AGRICULTURAL LAND PRESERVATION PROGRAM
REVIEW OF REVENUES, EXPENDITURES AND FUND BALANCE
FOR THE YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2003

INTRODUCTION AND SCOPE

In response to a request from the State of Maryland Department of Agriculture, our audit was conducted to determine the following:

- The fund balance of the Agricultural Land Preservation Fund
- The amount of Agricultural Tax Revenues collected by Howard County
- The amount of Agricultural Tax Revenues forwarded from Howard County to the State of Maryland
- The amount of funds expended from Agricultural Tax Revenues and the purpose of those expenditures
- Compliance with the State's "three year rule" relating to the expenditure of Agricultural Tax Revenues
- Adequacy of internal controls over the recognition and collection of Agricultural Tax Revenues

Howard County also designates 25% of its local Transfer Tax for Agricultural Preservation purposes and includes these amounts, along with the State Agricultural Transfer Tax Collections, in the County's Agricultural Land Preservation Fund. We therefore reviewed the collections and expenditures of the fund as a whole, and performed specific audit steps relating to the percentages and rules pertaining to State Agricultural Tax Revenues.

AGRICULTURAL LAND PRESERVATION PROGRAM
REVIEW OF REVENUES, EXPENDITURES AND FUND BALANCE

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE:

1. The revenues accumulated in the Howard County Agricultural Fund represent receipts from both the State Agricultural Transfer Tax and a portion of the County's Local Transfer Tax. Also included in the revenues are interest related to the above taxes and application fees collected. The expenditures in this fund are charged against the accumulated revenues received and represent the expenditures of the Agricultural Land Preservation Program.
2. Howard County has designated 25% of its annual local Transfer Tax to the Agricultural Land Preservation Program.
3. Interest on investments of $5,755,933 includes both interest on investments and gain on investments. This amount is significantly higher in FY 2003 as compared to FY 2002 (an increase of $4,718,689) because as interest rates have decreased overall, interest on these zero coupon bonds has remained constant which increases the market value of these bonds and, therefore, the amount shown on the statements.
4. In accordance with Article 13, Section 301 - Agricultural Land Transfer Tax, Tax Property Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland: the County collected $1,294,587 of State Agricultural Transfer Tax during the year ended June 30, 2003. The activity specifically related to these State Agricultural Transfer Tax collections is summarized as follows:

Balance - June 30, 2002	$	0

5. There is a provision in the Agricultural Land Preservation Program which allows landowners to set aside up to one acre of land for each of their children so that they can build a house on that land. During FY 2003, three landowners exercised that option on land which had been put into the program and reimbursed the County for the amount which was received.
6. The Agricultural Land Preservation Program currently in effect in Howard County has been established to allow landowners to sell the development rights on their land to the County. The County gives the landowner an installment purchase agreement, which is in the form of a bond, whereby the County agrees to make semi-annual interest payments on the principal balance for thirty years. Most of the principal is paid in a balloon payment at the end of the thirty years. However, there are some relatively small principal payments made over the course of the thirty-year period because the Howard County Charter requires that principal payments must be made at least once every two years. The total principal debt amount at June 30, 2003 is $53,171,000. This is classified as a long-term debt of Howard County. When the agreement is approved, the County purchases a zero-coupon bond which will earn interest and grow until it is equal to the balloon payment when it matures in thirty years. The purchase price of the zero-coupon bonds and the amount of interest earned to date are both included in the Agricultural Land Preservation Program fund balance. The fund balance also includes some accrued interest payable on the installment purchase agreements since February 15, 2003, which becomes payable on August 15, 2003. The amounts in the $34,714,401 fund balance at June 30, 2003, which are committed to the holders of the installment purchase agreements are:

Zero-Coupon Bonds $5,675,883

Interest on Zero-Coupon Bonds	6,771,008
Accrued Interest Payable on 8/15/03	2,081,254
Total	$14,528,145
